

Invitation to a 2 day

CONSTRUCTION LAW SEMINAR

14 - 15 August 2017 • British Council, Accra, Ghana • 8.30am - 4.30pm

(Endorsed by the Society of Construction Law for Africa)

West Africa Built Environment Research (WABER) Conference

Topics

- Delay and disruption in construction contracts (including core principles and matters relating to construction time)
- Claims – extension of time claims, claims for loss/expense, claim entitlement and prosecution, etc.
- Payment issues and practical remedies for late payment and non-payment
- Project finance funding agreements / Public Private Partnerships (PPPs)
- Liability for defects in completed projects

Resource Persons:

Rob Morson
Partner, Pinsent Masons

Divine K.D. Letsa
Partner & Head of Construction, Infrastructure & Transport, Bentsi-Enchill, Letsa & Ankamah

Rob Wilkins
Partner, Pinsent Masons

Advocate Johan Beyers
Chairperson of the Society of Construction Law for Africa, Advocate at the Cape Town Bar, International member of Keating Chambers in London

Benefits of attending:

- Professional development • Knowledge on current developments • Interaction with leading experts
- Networking opportunities • Certificate • CPD points • Course pack

Registration:

Registration fee is 150USD but early registration and payment before 15 June 2017 is 130USD To register, email your details to info@waberconference.com or call/sms/whatsapp +233 545 204 300

Click here to register now

Part 1 in April was a valuable professional learning experience and was highly rated by participants

Partners

BENTSI-ENCHILL
LE TSA & ANKOMAH